

I wish the no call laws to remain the way they are. Although a few telemarketers still invade our privacy, our lives are much improved. I will NEVER do business with anyone who contacts me at home. I neither trust nor respect any business that contacts me by phone. Thank you